

Outline of data collected at Focus@24 clinic (F24)

Measures

Anthropometric measures (standing height, sitting height, weight, waist circumference, arm circumference and hip circumference)

DXA – Whole body and hip scans

3D body scan

Samples (to be part of the YP samples file, when assayed/released)

Fasting blood sample

Saliva sample (if refused blood sample)

Urine sample

Liver, heart and lung assessments

Liver scan

Echocardiography

Carotid intima-media thickness (cIMT) scan

Pulse wave velocity (PWV) measures

Sphygmocor/pulse wave analysis (PWA) session

Step/grip exercise session

Lung function test

Cognitive tasks

WISC digit symbol coding and vocabulary tasks

Eprime (Stop-signal task, emotion recognition task, and N-back working memory task)

Source monitoring task

Jumping to conclusions task

Predictive processing cognitive task

Questionnaires/interviews

Alcohol use

Smoking use

Cannabis use

Other drugs questionnaire

Anti-social behaviour

Friends' behaviour

Police and criminal justice

Depression, anxiety, health/well-being and self-harm (CIS-R)

Male reproductive health

Personality (Standardised Assessment of Personality – Abbreviated Scale (SAPAS) and Community Assessment of Psychic Experiences (CAPE))

Difficult experiences

Family, friends and work

Female reproductive health

PLIKS (Psychosis-like symptoms interview)

Physical activity

Participants were asked to wear an activity monitor/accelerometer for four days post-clinic